Stockholm, October 13.

THE Queen of Sweden received laſt Poſt Letters from the King her Royal Conſort, wherein his Majeſty fixes the 18th Inſtant, O. S. for his ſetting out from Caſſel. It is ſaid his Majeſty will ſtop a Day or two at Stralſund. A Placard is printed, though not yet publiſhed, regulating all Sorts of Expence in Cloaths, Houſe-keeping, Marriages, Chriſtenings and Burials; with new Prohibitions of ſeveral Foreign Commodities. It is thought that before it takes Place, it will undergo ſome Alterations and Explanations.

Caſſel, Oct. 29, N. S. The King of Sweden left this Place about Nine this Morning. His Majeſty intends to dine at Munden, and lie to Night at a Place near the Hartz, and To-morrow Night to lie at Heinſen, a Country Seat of M. Harenberg, and to dine the Day following at Herrenhauſen.

Hanover, Nov. 2. The King of Sweden, accompanied by their Royal Highneſſes the Princes William, Maximilian and George, his Majeſty's Brothers, the Generals Verſchuur and Detfort, arrived the 31ſt paſt about Eleven a-Clock in the Forenoon, at Herrenhauſen, where his Majeſty was received and complimented by the Felt-Marſhal, the Miniſters of State, and ſome other Perſons of Diſtinction, who had the Honour to dine with his Majeſty. About Four in the Afternoon his Swediſh Majeſty ſet out to lie at Bourgſtorff.

Whitehall, October 29.

Yeſterday about One a-Clock their Majeſties, his Royal Highneſs the Duke, and their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes, arrived in good Health from Hampton-Court at St. James's Palace: As did his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales in the Evening.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th Day of October 1731.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to order, That the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Ninth of November next, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the Thirteenth of January following: At which Time they are to ſit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs.

London, October 29.

Yeſterday Francis Child, Eſq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year enſuing, was ſworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Enſigns of Mayoralty were ſurrendred to him in the accuſtomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the ſeveral Companies in their reſpective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Weſtminſter; and having walked round the Hall and ſolemnly ſaluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Blackfryars-Stairs, and from thence in Coaches with the uſual Solemnity to Goldſmith's Hall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were preſent the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction.
